BIO

Murray is a seasoned corporate training and business growth expert with over 25 years experience of instructional design, delivering workplace learning solutions, facilitation, and providing business advice that gets results. He is a visionary, a strategic thinker, and a proven business leader.

Murray holds a Commerce Degree and a Masters of Business Administration Degree from the University of Calgary. Prior to founding a learning and development business in 1992, Murray spent 14 years in the oil and gas industry. His last position was as Vice President of Sales and Marketing at S.E.A.L. International.

Murray is consistently awarded the highest level of recognition amongst our business partners and is a sought-after speaker, writer, corporate trainer, facilitator, performance coach, and business growth consultant.

Murray is passionate about leadership and published his first book, “Leadership Eh? How to Lead, Laugh & Win in the Game of Business & Life” in 2009. He is frequently published and has written articles on leadership, team effectiveness, managing change, workplace communication and more. He has been featured in the Calgary Herald, the Institute for Professional Management, and the Oil and Gas Journal.

Murray enjoys spending time with family and friends, golfing, camping, music and travel.
